Her most direct influence is from Jane Austen, although her work also bears similarities to the social comedies of manners written in the 18th and 19th centuries, and in particular the work of Barbara Pym. Then evil people are nice, Miss Quinns Quandary people are evil.

Not by a long shot. I really think the chances of that happening are very low. Full of that cozy English village flavor only as only Miss Read can do it. Nicely condensed and not left wanting. One wonders just what was happening in Miss Read's own life as she wrote this, and the immediately preceding Farther Afield. I have been several years since I read a book by Miss Read. Fun This was a fun read
