As a goddess expected to avert demons from the house or city over which she stood guard and to protect the individual as she or he passed through dangerous liminal places, Hecate would naturally become known as a goddess who could also refuse to avert the demons, or even drive them on against unfortunate individuals. It saddens me to observe the plight of our own species; we appear to be incapable of solving our problems. Instead of viewing the peloton as a place to find shelter, you start viewing it as a tool you can use to increase your chances of winning. Areyousureyouwanttocontinue? Wilson "The love of complexity without reductionism makes art; the love of complexity with reductionism makes science" -- E. Milne "You have brains in your head.
