Apart from the official Eurovision media handbook, I've received "gifts" from the other countries participating: CDs of the Finnish, German, Greek, Swiss and Dutch entries. I feel much better than last year because I know this song much better. Despite its modest population of 9.8 million. The French, of course, overwhelmingly prefer French. However, it has never been completely apolitical. I have since managed to catch it twice - although admittedly they were both at the starting point and the coach was already waiting .
