To see what your friends thought of this book, please sign up. I found Izzy's story too YA for my liking and I felt its freshness just did not fit alongside the story of Clara's. The lack of compassion and sometimes outright brutality of the nurses and doctors I had meant to put this book on my TBR list. Most of the doors and windows had been boarded up from the inside, as if the memories of what had happened there should never again see the light of day. More filters. At least, not. Peg hopes to undercover who these lost souls were by what they left .
