This is also to give your hair natural oils some time to act. Excessive Heat denatures proteins. The friction between your hair and the cotton pillowcase can cause frizz to fluff. So, try to skip the hot tools for a no-heat hairstyle at least two or three times a week. You might want to invest in soft coverings for your pillows and hair so the stress hair is exposed to during all the turning and tossing of sleep is reduced and your hair gets a chance to grow fast without being subjected to constant stress and breakage.
