Paul: Consider critical thinking. First half of the book worth reading, second half not so. Only with quality long-term staff development that helps the teachers, over an extended period of time, over years not months, to work on their own thinking and come to terms with what intellectual standards are, why they are essential, and how to teach for .

Ayoungwomaninthe classwhodescribedherselfasAboriginealexpressedherc Fun though it was, there were times where DiCarlo could have fleshed some things out a bit more and added some stronger arguments for and against the supernatural positions that he picks apart.
