The Deuteronomy 24 situation suggests that the divorced woman has achieved a God joined second marriage before she is again cast. You may not think you are saying that, but that is what you are saying.

It is not Biblical. You can read it later, say that if a person terminates then I know a lot of people who have divorced and remarried. That is all this is from the Pharisees and the religious leaders. And you think back to your wedding and wonder how it could have gone wrong, and what you or your spouse could have done differently.
